

Growing Nonprofit Arts Leaders: A Creative Conversation

Leslie Bonner, Dewey & Kaye; Sean Fabich, Leadership Pittsburgh, Inc.

Monday, October 20, 5-8:30 pm - Cabaret at Theatre Square, 655 Penn Avenue, Downtown

Play. The doors open at 5 pm to a menagerie of creative possibilities! Grab a drink while you sculpt your table's centerpiece, sketch your latest ideas or solve puzzles—all informal activities designed to connect you with new peers in the field.

Learn. Tune in to the latest, as Dewey & Kaye brings you their 2008 study, Nonprofit Leadership Development: A Model for Identifying and Growing Leaders within the Nonprofit Sector. You'll discover the core competencies common to those who face the industry's most pressing challenges, and you'll gain insight about experiences that have cultivated leadership in current executives.

Discuss. Settle into a cozy, "world café" style discussion moderated by Sean Fabich of Leadership Pittsburgh. This series of three, 30-minute conversations about the study will connect you with at least 11 others around the room, culminating in an artistic re-telling of key discussion points for all to hear.

This "Creative Conversation" is hosted in celebration of National Arts & Humanities Month, in partnership with Americans for the Arts. $5 in advance ($8 at the door)

To register, contact ProArtsTickets at 412.394.3353 or <http://www.proartstickets.org/events/buy/166/etid:584>.

Agenda

- 5-5:30 Play – Registration & Creation

- 5:30-6 Learn – Presentation: "Nonprofit Leadership Development: A Model for Identifying and Growing Leaders within the Nonprofit Sector"
Leslie Bonner, Senior Consultant, Dewey & Kaye

- 6-7:40 Discuss – Three "World Café" Conversations (30 minutes each)
Sean Fabich, Senior Program Manager, Leadership Pittsburgh, Inc.

- 7:40-8 Synthesize – A Plenary Session to Bring it Home

- 8:8:30 Play (Again) – Open Time to Connect